2. Frank Ecker, Bureau of the Budget, telephoned to say that their O&M shop was organizing a five-day seminar at Williamsburg for senior managers of large or significant Government agencies to discuss their general problems. It is to be held the end of October and the cost will be $100-$150 plus per diem, etc. Frank requested that I furnish him with the name of a CIA official to attend this seminar, after which the invitation would be extended to that individual. (At my Staff Meeting on Wednesday, 31 August, I asked for nominations.)

3. [redacted] advised me that the Consultants are due to come to Washington on the 24th and 25th of October. The entire group is being brought in this year for only two days, whereas in the past only half of the group had been brought in each year. Emmett plans to have a cocktail party for them at his house on the evening of the 25th and also a luncheon on one of the two days. He is to check with [redacted] as to whether the 25X1A9a Director and/or General Cabell would prefer to come to the luncheon or meet with the Consultants in the Conference Room a half hour prior to the luncheon.
